MUST UNLOAD QUAY.

Dalzell Says That is the Only Salvation for the Republican Party.

LEA'S LETTER JUST RIGHT.

Harrison Will Surely Suffer Because of His Associations.

THE SILENT SENATOR'S FRIENDS

Are Not Alarmed, and Charge All Trouble to the Democrats.

GORIN IS GETTING READY TO BOLT

Congressman Dalzell states that Lea's open letter to President Harrison contains the truth and nothing but the truth. He further says that unless Quay is unloaded by the Republicans the party itself will be unloaded. | Representative Culbertson does not take such a radical view of the situation. General Osborne has declined to head an independent ticket.

IFROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

WASHINGTON, April 10 .- The open letter of Mr. Henry C. Lea to President Harat the Capital to-day. Senator Quay's friends, who are of course greatly in the majority, made light of the matter, generally on the ground that Lea has been a chronic Mugwump reformer for years, who was never satisfied with anything. Eastern members of Congress, who well know Mr. Lea, refused to be quoted simply because they did not care to attach any importance to the letter, which, they declared, would have no effect whatever.

Representative Culbertson, of Erie, who has been often quoted as an anti-Quay man, said that he had not yet read the letter, but from conversation with others had caught its drift. He could not say what weight, if any, it would have, but it seemed to him that even anti-Quay Republicans could not overlook the fact to fight Quay practically meant under present conditions to fight the Republican party.

NOT A RADICAL YET.

That was a serious matter and he was not yet ready to take such a step. He had not felt triendly to Mr. Quay on account of his interference with appointments in his lace as our candidate," continued Mr. Endistrict, but that was a thing not to be connis, "we would go into the contest this fall with the belief that our party party was at stake, and good Republicans would sink animosities which were largely based on personal grounds.

Mr. Will Henry, of Armstrong county, Chief of the Division of Indian Accounts of the Tressury Department, is an intimate personal friend of Senator Quay. Speaking of the Lea letter he said to-day: "Mr. Lea's complaint against Senator Quay seems to be based entirely on a series of articles in a sensational Democratic newspaper in which recklessness is written in every paragraph. He thinks Mr. Quay ought to say something in regard to the charges. Now, if others, like Mr. Lea, give credence to these articles, why is it that no Republican or independent newspaper in Pennsylvania of any standing has even mentioned their publication.

THEY ALL KNOW HIM.

"Surely the people of Pennsylvania have had as good an opportunity to know Mr. is nothing if not sensational, and it is a libel on the people of Pennsylvania to say that they, knowing such things to be true of any public man, would keep him constantly in vance him. On the one hand are a mass of port. reckless charges, and on the other, the man against whom they are made, in the United States Senate and at the head of the National Committee of his party, and that after long years in full view of his party and the people of Pennsylvania, his every act analyzed and diagnosed. It seems to me that Mr. Lea should abuse the people of Pennsylvania rather than President Harrison or Senator Quay, if anybody is to be abused. It was Senator Quay's brilliant management that put the Republican party once again in control of the Government. and naturally this turns upon him all the bitterness and venom of the Democrats, but unless Republicans regret the victory of their own party I don't see why they should add their howls to those of the discomfited Demo-

DECIDEDLY INCISIVE. Representative Dalzell, when asked what he thought of Mr. Lea's letter, said: "Well. in the first place, it is a piece of remarkable English, clear, pointed, elegant and very in cisive. Mr. Lea simply says in a pungent way to the President what good Republicans have been saying to each other for a long time. Mr. Quay is the representative of Pennsylvania in the United States Senate. Whatever hurts him necessarily hurts the people of the Commonwealth whose bonor he has in his keeping. "No wonder they speak out when he is attacked. His position proclaims him to be according to their judgment, one of their foremost men. The world will judge them by him. I wonder are they prepared to be so judged? What Mr. Les says about the subserviency of the President to Mr. Quay is, unfortunately, absolutely true, and the result is that few men in Pennsylvania now aspire to any office until they first go and ask Mr. Quay's permission. That sort of thing can't last long. Decent, self-respecting men can't but resent, and the plain common people will eventually overthrow this one-man power and make an end of bossism for a time at least."

THE EXACT SITUATION. "The truth is, that to an independent honest Penusylvanian in public life there is but one of two alternatives, either to resent tisement that the newspapers have been giving me as an opponent of Mr. Quay, but in my humble capacity as a citizen, having Republican success near at heart, I am firmly persuaded that unless the Republican party in Pennsylvania unloads Mr. Quay it will itself be unloaded. It would not be proper for me to make any observations about Mr. Harrison. It is to be presumed that he has fully considered what his relations to Mr. Quay ought to be. But I believe, as Mr. Lea says, that he will probably be called upon to share the losses as well as the gains of any joint venture. PLANS OF THE RICKERS. There is a great deal of querying as to what course the opponents of the Senator will pursue in the coming State contest. Some avor the nomination of an independent Republican ticket, as in 1882, and others a direct vote for the Democratic candidate if a confessed Quay man like Senator Delamater be nominated by the Republicans. This latter proposition does not suit any but the genuine mugwump Republicans, but on the other hand no satisfactory candidate can be found to head an independent movement. General Osborne has been sounded repeatedly in this direction, but steadily refuses, saying if he cannot get the regular comination he will support whoever is nominated by the convention. LIGHTNER.

QUAY STILL SILENT.

He Insists That He is Not Interfering in the State Republican Contest - Ennis Again Declares Decidedly for Wallace for Governor.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH, I PHILADELPHIA, April 10. - Senator Quay will to-morrow meet Mayor Fitler for the purpose of again discussing the condition of the Republican party in the State, and the availability of the several candidates mentioned for the Republican nomination for Governor. When the day express from the west rolled into Broad street station to-night at 6:50 Senator Quay rison was the subject of a good deal of gossip and his son Richard stepped from it and were at once driven to the Continental Hotel. When Senator Quay was asked regarding the rumor that Senator Delamater was to be switched off in the race for the Republican nomination, he declared that he was still continuing his policy of non-interference, and that if Delamater was to be switched off he would have to do the switching himself, as he (Delamater) was making the fight for the nomination on his own merits. Charles H. Mutlin, of Cumberland county, who was a delegate to the National Re-publican Convention of 1888, speaking of the coming Republican State Convention and its outcome, said: "My impression is that Senator Delamater, of Crawford county, will be named as a candidate for Governor. The flurry of the past week, in my judgment, will not amount to anything. I personally favor the nomination of Senator Delamater, because I consider him the most available candidate."

"Two-thirds of the delegates to the Demeratic State Convention will vote for Senstor Wallace's nomination for Governor, said John S. Ennis, the well-known Demo cratic politician of Pittsburg. "He is well known to our people as a first-class organizer, and we feel that in the fight this fall we need a man to lead us who will poll its full vote or nearly so. The old feeling which has existed between the Randallites and the Wallaceites has been entirely wiped out and our country would do its level best to poll its full strength for Wal-

The Nomination of Wallace Would be Serious Democratic Mistake.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. HARRISBURG, April 10 .- General Gobin was here to-day taking testimony in a case involving counter claims to ex-Senator Wright and ex-Congressman Miller, arising out of business in connection with the soldiers' orphan schools. While in the city the General took time to say that Delamater would not be a safe man to head the Republican ticket, and that if the Democrats ominated a man for whom the Republicans could conscientiously support he would be defeated. The General did not say that he would bolt the ticket if Delamater were chosen, but intimated strongly that if the Democrats placed in the field a certain candidate he would vote for him in preference Quay as any writer for a newspaper which to the Crawford county Senator. CHURCHMEN BOLT.

Exciting Scenes at the Illinois Conference of the Evangelical Association-Bishop Esher's Friends Break Away From the Main Body.

CHICAGO, April 10 .- There was a large athering of the clergy and laity of the Evangelical Association at the meeting of the Illinois Conterence in the Sheffield Avenue Church this morning. As some disturbance was feared owing to the state of feelings of the two parties into which the association is divided through the troubles among the bishops, a policeman was on hand to keep order. Bishop J. J. Esher nominated the Rev. D. B. Byers as Temporary Chairman. Mr. Byers attempted to read Scripture lesson, but was so interrupted by the friends of Bishop Esher that a hymn was sung, and then the storm having quieted, devotions were continued by Rev. Mr. Byers, After prayer and another the Chairman read the hymn, governing the organization. rules The interruption then broke out afresh and continued for some time, till the Rev. W S. Goessele and C. Himmell called out for the members of the Illinois Conference to withdraw to the Wisconsin street church, where the conference would be organized at 10 A. M. In answer to this call 26 active and 6 local ministers withdrew, leaving some 70 ministers in the conference. The adherents of Bishop Esher arrived at the Wisconsin Street Church shortly before 10 o'clock and immediately proceeded to organize themselves into a conference. Bishop Esher delivered an address, in which he reviewed the situation. pointed out that at his first trial he was acquitted of the charges brought against him, but that the Pennsylvania conference had summoned him to appear and had tried him in his absence. He hadn't received one line or scrap of evidence of an official character that he had been deposed, and he still claimed the right to preside at the Illinois conference from which they had been driven out.

At the Wisconsin Street Church a motion was adopted that notice be sent to preachers in the other faction, that if they desired to join the real and only conference they will be given until 2 o'clock to-morrow to do so, which time all remaining out be expelled from the Church. will At the afternoon session of the Sheffield avenue conference Mr. Byers, the Chairman, was noticeably silent, the Esher faction having sued out a writ of replevin to get the records of the conference. A constable tried to serve it, but Mr. Byers and the records were not in sight.

She was about 35 years of age, and was still comely at the time of her death. She lived in a roomy house with her son, who is about 17 years old. Ferdinand Ward was sentenced to ten years' penal servitude on November 1, 1885, so that his sentence has still two years to run, with full commutation for good conduct. The news of the death of Mrs. Ward reached her husband in Sing Sing prison at noon. When the dispatch was handed him, while at work in the prison printing office, he was very much affected.

As soon as he informed Deputy Warden Brush of his bereavement, permission was given him to go to his cell for the day. Warden Brush will in all probabilty allow Ward to attend the funeral of his wife, under the escort of a prison guard. CHICAGO, April 10.-Emma Stark, the servant girl who is under arrest, charged with putting poison in the food she cooked for a family named Newland, which resulted in the death of Mr. and Mrs. Newland and the dangerous illness of their two children, has made a full confession. The confession was obtained from the girl by Chief of Police Marsh, in person. She said:

I did not, as you think, obtain a place with the Newland family with a premeditated plan to kill them. It was to secure a place where I might kill myself that I went there. The world appeared dark to me. I had been betrayed. As soon as I got the chance, I borrowed enough money to secure the poison. Not knowing just how it acted, and wishing to be sure of the amount of the drug necessary to produce a more serious effect than mere nausea, I just dropped a little in the corn. I wanted to watch the effect that the dose would have upon those who ate the corn. Alas for me, I put in too much, with the result that you know. I, too, partook of the corn, but it only made me sick. After seeing the result of my work, I should have taken the remainder of the poison, but was too unnerved. Believe me, I did not intend to kill any of the family: I wanted to die mythe Newland family with a premeditated plan to kill any of the family; I wanted to die my-self. Will they hang me? EIGHT HOURS' WORK

For a Full Day's Pay is Demanded by New York Carpenters.

BOSSES DO NOT LIKE THE IDEA.

Chicago Strikers Still Firm and Confident of Success.

BRITISH MINERS GETTING INTO LINE. Boston Marble Cutters Get Nine Hours at the Old Day Wages.

The agitation for fewer hours of labor is spreading. The New York carpenters have lecided upon demanding an eight-hour day, the Chicago strikers are firm and confident, and from other places comes the report that the movement is rapidly growing.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 NEW YORK, April 10 .- All the principal employing carpenters in town said to-day that they have had no conferences so far with their employes or any one else over the eight-hour work day. Several of them added rears of life, or sanity, at the outside. It is that it seemed to them that though the carpelieved that His Majesty is aware of the penters' meeting at Webster Hall finally decided by a unanimous vote to ask for the eight-hour work day, there was evidently some doubt whether they would really put Prince for the arduous character of a boy | the vote into effect. Most of the bosses said Emperor, which he is likely to be called on | that their workingmen were well satisfied. Not all the carpenters in this vicinity have changed from the ten-hour to a nine-hour day yet.

"The carpenters in factories in Brooklyn, Staten Island and surrounding towns," said a member of one firm, "are still working ten hours. It is hardly to be expected that we who work only nine hours will concede any more; the carpenters will not be likely to ask it of us."

FIGHTING AMONG THEMSELVES. The carpenters' unions which belong to the American Federation of Labor are those which form the United Brotherhood of Carenters and Joiners. They were selected from all the organizations in the American Federation early in March to begin the fight for eight hours. There was no organization of carpenters in this city under the banner of the United Brotherhood then, but one was organized at once. The other three carpenters' organizations have been fighting them. The United Order of American Carpenters and Joiners were not represented at the meeting. The other two unions are divided upon the subject.

Walking Delegate Alfred Ashley, of the Amalgamated Carpenters, said to-day that making the vote of the Webster Hall meeting unanimous settled the question as to an eight-hour work day. The carpenters were sure to get it, because all the bosses that he had talked with had agreed to concede it. WILL CALL UPON THE BOSSES.

A committee representing the meeting would call upon the boss carpenters in a few days. Then there will probably be a meeting of the employers to take united action. Samuel Gompers said to-day he was entirely satisfied with the outcome of the meeting.

A meeting of the American District Committee of the Committe mittee of the Amalgamated Society of Car penters and Joiners was held at the residence of the Secretary, George Cavanaugh, last night. A resolution was passed pledg-ing the adherence of the Amalgamated meeting of the Carpenters' Union on Wednesday, and voting the sum of $1,000 to IOWA STILL DRY.

The Legislature Refuses to Disturb the Present Prohibitory Laws-Two High License Bills Shelved by the State Senate.

DES MOINES, April 10.-There seems to be little probability that the present Legis-lature will disturb Iowa's prohibition law. The license measures that have been advocated are practically dead.

The Senate spent to-day considering two license bills, one by Schmidt, in accordance with the Democratic platform, and the other by Lawrence, a Republican. Both bills were lost on engrossment. All license bills which have come before the Senate have now either been defeated or indefin-itely postponed. In the House the Schmidt bill is on the calendar with a recommendation from the Committee of the Whole for its indefinite postponement, and as the House stands 51 for prohibition and 40 for license there is little hope there for

The Schmidt bill provides for the callinglof an election to decide for or against license; elections not to be held oftener than every two years. If it is decided for license the power of issuing shall be vested in the Dis-trict Court, and all applications must be published for at least two weeks deciding previous to issuance. Remon-strances will be considered by the court. The minimum license fee was fixed at $500, all of which shall go to the county, and the corporations may impose and collect additional license. A $5,000 bond must be given by the person getting license for the proper servation of law, and penalties for evasions are provided.

The Lawrence bill provides in a similar manner for elections, and if license carries, the Governor shall appoint three Excise Commissioners for the locality, who shall have power to issue or revoke licenses. The minimum fee is $500, all of which goes to the city treasury. The person receiving license must file a bond for the observance of the law. Restrictions are made that no liquor should be sold to minors or habitual drunkards; all saloons to open on public streets and to be closed by 11 P. M. on all days, all day long on election days and Sundays; no games to be permitted, no facturers shall be granted in counties for

BROTHER AND SISTER INSANE. They Leave Home Sane and Are Brought

Back Raving Mad. WICHITA, KAN., April 10 .- An inexplicable case of insanity is that of Simon and Rose Bolien, son and daughter of a wealthy farmer near Derby, who arrived here at noon from Dodge City in charge of the Sheriff. A week ago Rose left home for California. Three days later word reached the parents that she was ill at El Paso, Tex., and her brother Simon was sent after her. Nothing more was heard of them till yester-day, when the Sheriff received a message from Dodge City saying the pair were vio-lently insane. Simon arrived in shackles, and his sister's face and eyes were black and swollen and her neck horribly gashed,

The two were put off a train at Dodge City on Tuesday and handed over to the Marshal.

Not realizing how violent they were the officer failed to handcuff his prisoners. In a few minutes bedlam was turned loose in the neighborhood, and it took a large posse to recapture the Boilens. They were placed in the same room and left, but only for a moment, when the shricks of a girl brought a rescuing party. On the floor lay the sister, her brother beating and choking her and gouging her neck with a sharp iron. The whole affair is mysterious. In his more lucid intervals Simon claims that they where her brother had struck her and cut were drugged. DOTS AND DASHES.

THE AUSTRALIAN SYSTEM Will Probably be Adopted by the Ohio

Democratic Legislature. PRPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. COLUMBUS, O., April 10 .- The Legislature became industrious and is in session to-night passing local bills. They expect to get away in ten days. No measures of importance were enacted into laws to-day. In the House the Mallon election bill was under consideration. It is a modification of the Australian system, and provides for a State and County Board of Election. So many amendments were offered and agreed to that the bill had to be postponed one week and be printed. During the discussion there were strong harges made in regard to election frauds in different parts of the State. Monnott, of Stark, exposed the system in that county, and claimed that at least 25 per cent of the voters in it were purchasable. It is be-lieved the bill will become a law unless the close of the session cuts it off. WRECK ON A NEW YORK RAILROAD. Passenger Train Ditched by a Tree or

The CENTS SCHOOL STRIKE

Four Score Lads A Parentage

Decidedly Re ase to be EDUCATED UNDER A STARRY FLAG Presented by an Association of the British Americans.

POLITICS CAUSED ALL THE TROUBLE.

The Boys Propose to Raise a Banner to be Purchased by Themselves.

British Americans of Brookline, Mass., offered to place a flag over the school house. The pupils of Irish extraction thereupon left in a body, with the constituted authorities in fierce but ineffectual pursuit. The boys have volunteered to procure an American ensign themselves for the building. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

Boston, April 10.-There is a queer rumpus at Brookline, which terminated today in open rebellion by the boys of the William H. Lincoln Grammer School, all of whom left the school in a body. Then followed the undignified spectacle of two school committeemen, a master of the school and a superintendent of streets, chasing four score lively boys through the streets in a vain effort to capture one of the rebels and make an example of him. There was the liveliest kind of cross country running for more than half an hour and then the dignitaries gave up the chase.

A PECULIAR TROUBLE.

The boys added to the sting of defeat by congregating at a respectful distance and cheering their pursuers. The boys are nearly all of Irish-American parentage, and the trouble was the result of an effort on the part of the British-American society to present a flag to the school. The Irish-American blood could not stand that, and they declined the gift without thanks. To show their patriotism they opened a subcription list and planned to buy their own

The boys had been led to suppose that the flag which the British-Americans had offered was to be raised this afternoon, and as the boys had expressed a desire to purchase their own flag they withdrew from the building and proceeded to "make Rome howl" as an indication of their dissatistaction with the programme of the school mag-nates. The unfortunate state of affairs which interferes with the discipline of the Brookline school system had its origin about two months ago. The offer of the British-American Club was made just before an unusually red-hot town meeting.

A POLITICAL MOVE.

The two leading candidates for Selectmen were Chester and Hand. Chester was backed up by the British-Americans and Hand was strongly supported by the Irish-Americans. When the offer of a flag was made the latter claimed that it was made in the interests of Mr. Chester. This led to a bitter internal rivalry, which has been intensified by the boys rebelling to-day. It is very probable that the matter will not be pressed by the British-Americans, who state that as yet they had not purchased the state that as yet they had not purchas flag, and will therefore be $50 in pocket. Next Monday the School Board meets, and the boys' petition is likely to be dealt with The matter caused one of the greatest sensa tions that has ever excited the sedate com-
